Each device comes with free GUI software, Windows SDK, Linux SDK, LabVIEW driver, a programming guide, and a USB cable.

LabBricks are the foundation of tomorrow's most efficient wireless simulation systems.

Signal Generators feature fast switching through 20 GHz, selectable 10 MHz references, phase continuous sweep, and pulse modulation. While LabBrick Digital Attenuators offer your choice of fixed or swept attenuation ramps and optimal step size resolutions. High isolation solid-sate switches and highly accurate phase shifters provide a full toolbox for your next test set up. You'll never look back with LabBricks.
